Milmington

WILMINGTON, N. C.: FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1872.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. iots in Council-Hon. Thomas S. take for Congress-Colonel Waiter .. Steele for Elector.

CHARLOTTE, May 25; lonventions usually are. erly speech on taking the Chair.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

nated Convention Harmonious.

Salishter, N. C., May 24, 1872. offer several ballotings Major William the are glad to learn, as we do from a RANSOM will, as soon as Congress ad- Tod ins, begin a canvasa of the State. We which for him a warm welcome throughat the borders of North Carolina.

Senator Ransom.

Nomination of Hon. J. M. Leach. Hon. James M. Leach was, on Wednesy last, nominated by acclamation by the overssional Convention at Greensboro. il that our friends in the Fifth District on of the services to his State, rendered

col. Hargrove and the Negro.

a play the demagogue with credit. Har* ... ijet-baggers and colored men to the ar, sedawags to the front, is now the Rad-" time the carpet-hagger was a very im- ! stant personage, but now his odor is as for Mars Tod and Squire Taz. reignant to the party nestril in general as that of the colored man to Governor ...ldwell's, in particular. Those were "ush times" when Ashley superintended Jublic Instruction, when Fisher was chief the military stati, when Abbott, Laflin, milliand Colerove made laws and issued to a good when Littlefield stale the one of both white and native.

will be strictly enforced, as that at Wilson, n nominating Thomas, taught Hyman that colored men must follow, and not at. In spite of Summer's equal rights and supplemental bills, all the "front seats we reserved" in the Radical Synagogue or the exclusive use of scalawags. Either are, color, or previous condition of serviwie, or some other moving cause, is operding to the serious disadvantage of the bred citizens and their political parents,

So far, indeed, kas it gone that Tot R. aldwell, who is now seeking their votes to make him Governor, does not hesitate ago

LOCAL. CALDWELL in WILMINGTON.

SPEAKING ATTHECITY HALLLAST NIGHT-HARGROVEKU-KLUXES HARS TOD-LONG WIND vs.

SHORT BLESTER! The Earliest masses assembled at the City Hall his might to hear Taz Hargrove and their Mars Tod occupy time which the Democratic Conservative Conven-could have been more properly spent in deep, in advocacy of their claims to office. C. Z. French was made Chairman, and among a bost of others Abbott found his slance-indeed, the Convention was as level as a simple Vice-President of the rabble. The Chairman stated that Gov. as, Z. P. Vance presided, and made a Caldwell had refused to divide time with a Conservative speaker, as he did not feel he would be doing himself justice to meet a new man at every place.

Mars Tod, having no opposition, appear-1. Walter L. Parche of Elic' mouth was ed to aske things easy, and in no burry to strut upon the stage : but "A Squire he had, whose name was 142, That in the adventure went his half. one of Cabarras, were ap- And he took a little more than half in the matter of time and attention. By the aid of two or three brimming glasses of whismounts prevailed, and either winking or blinking, he managed to guillar-lasin throughout extend his few remarks through about two freight train which arrived at Moss Neck at bear the experience of the members. hours and a half of the evening. Sp. m., and was at that time occupying a SHINATION FOR CONGRESS IN and position of politics before, during and since the war, and had the unblushing effrontery to declare that his was rabout the autor Robbins, of Rowan Nomi- d-dest record on record." An original secessionist, he abused those whom he led gated, and proceeded to join hands with within a few feet of the train. Andrew was in present Insane Asylum for the better com-

her enemies in villifying her. So some rats of amphibious nature

Are either for the land or water.'

rivalled in magnificence of tone.

" His ordinary rate of speech is needless to say that this nomination the call for a Convention; then of his the platform, the latter was heard to say; an old claim, about which—to put it in Mrs. Gray, who could scarcely believe her Ka-Klux, painting in most pathetic colors, promised to do so. the hanging of Outlaw and the murder of The rest of this strange, sad story with current expenses of the year. It was also deep blue eyes often met those brown ones people ever really know how to love before also was in factor of the further extension the current expenses of the year. It was also deep blue eyes often met those brown ones his feelings, the twenty murders and known. On Thursday morning next after the Department that the accounts of one made Margaret long to laugh. But the more of the Lowreys. He also raised the this interview, a messenger, who it was administration shall not be re-opened by one asked no questions; the other answerlawyer, which he, Caldwell, had altered to summons which was to lead him away to have made a contract with one Roach to umphantly, and was proclaimed the best whom her husband regards as the apple of conscience and stilled his pride, with matters relating to his pen- the discovery of the body of the gallant another of which he might think better? late—the master's chair. owever, with copions drafts of whis- itentiary usurpation, taking care, of Wishart, all stark and stiff and covered What has been said in regard to the conpart of his campaign speech. On the and unsuspecting of danger. It is probable the administration of the Navy Departs started at the thought. point on any point, and for the manner in the spot, and that the first intimation he are made, and although no corruption has down in the empty chair and wept.

THE OUTLAWS!

Extracts from the Robesonian-The Outlans Drunk at Moss Neck-Hauled Away on a Wagon-Present of 500 People, and no attempt at tainly Dead-Summoning the Clans life for the safety of the community. te hear Caldwell, &c., &c.

We learn that on the Utili instant, Sichow no one so pain as to do reverence plien however and Andrew Strong spent the men who come held in their hands the day drinking and caronsing at Moss to destinies of the State. Not only have Neck. Both got drunk, the latter so are lost power in the State, but in their deeply that he had to be hauled home in a The meeting was called to order at 10 A. arty councils also has the charter of the cart. Stephen displayed a pistel which M. Dr. Whitehead in the Chair. a pet-bagger's voice lest its potency. was recognized as the property of Colonel Miscellaneous business was next in ore colored man as a political power is Wishart at the time of his death. Stephen | der, but on motion was dispensed with in Sums of money have been expended, and reature of the carpet-bagger, and has owned that it was his and boasted that he Dr. Hines cited the following cases in ment. Its situation furnishes the most unthe info a willing or anwilling oblivion had killed him and took the pistel from his proof of the infallibility of the medical answerable charge against the administraperson. During the afternoon he became science. tonvention after convention has met, forious and commenced ficing at random rable by distinguished physicians, but with only a single exception, so far as about the store. He so it one ball through which got well in eighteen months. A e know, while men and natives have the wall which lodged in a sack of corn on case of wound of knee joint which recov- on its account."-N. Y. Ecrening (Rep.) en put forward as Radical candidates for which a negro was sitting in the store, and ered in a short time without operative incomment positions. Reilly, the candidate put another charge through the roof of the terference. for Auditor is the only carpet-bagger on piazza. He boasted repeatedly that he knee joint which recovered with medical he State ticket. For Congress there is as killed Colonel Wishart, and conducted attendance without amputation. et not a single Radical candidate who is himself throughout in a most outrageous and violent manner, and yet the half dozen The Convention at Clinton, in nomi- citizens who were present meekly bore it hospital during the war and found that ording McKay has just taught Rutherford all, and hauled "poor Tom" home in a amputation proved injurious in more cases that the order for carpet-baggers to the rear cart! We fear to characterize such con- than beneficial. Dr. Hines said in case of > Some of our neighboring exchanges last patient recovered. week contained the statement, made on the authority of a reliable (very) gentle- lady with tumor on the check which bled man, that the reported death of H. B. same she got well "very beautifully." Lowrey was all a mistake, and that the From experience he had found that chlogreat outlaw was still "lurking in the reform exposed to the light rapidly became locomotives. These consist of coal powder Judge Gray's heiress, and the rejected swamps of Robeson." On the contrary, it | unfit for use. is known here as a well established fact that Henry Berry Lowrey is dead-that he tration of chloroform during the war. was shot and killed by his brother Stephen Dr. Foote reported a death from the inon the day after the robbery of Mr. Mc-Leod's safe, in this town, three months effects of chloroform he took the patient by

to declare he is opposed to Summer's sup- We learn that Stephen Lowrey and An- from three to five seconds. He referred to A good many people have wondered a birthday came at last, which showed how nominated the Democratic party should Plemental bill, is opposed to "social drew Strong, two of the Scuffletown outequality," to "mixed schools, mixed laws, were present among a large congrechurches, mixed everything." The colored | gation that assembled at a burying ground man is very useful as a voter, but will not near Buie's store, in this county, on Sun-chloroform proved entirely successful. "ay as a "socialist" or a "miner." Carpet- day last, to hear a funeral sermon that was aggers and colored men to the rear! to have been preached there on that day by Front seats reserved for scalawags! No Rev. N. M. Ray. The congregation nummixed drinks for Caldwell! Alas! Alas!! bered about five hundred persons, and chloroform.

these men mingled freely among them without molestation or restraint.

We learn that on Saturday last a numthem the only man that has ever been convicted of ku-kluxing in this county, went up on a hand-car from this place to Scuffletown, carrying a jug of whiskey, ciety. and were met a short distance from town by one of the outlaws, who accompanied them on their way. Taking this in connection with the fact that most of the Governor's hearers on Tuesday, of his own party, were from the Scuffletown region, tions. it would seem that the object of this visit to the land of the outlaws was to rally the case which was referred to the Committee "Swamp Angels" to the support of their

From the Lumberton Robesontan THE OUTLAWS.

Interesting Particulars of their Interview with Col. F. M. Wishart at Moss Neck-How they Entrapped Him-Their Perfid. ions Treachery and Fiend.

ish Brutality.

We are enabled to present some intersting particulars of the interview of Col. Wishart was aboard the regular through He gave a copious outline of the history seat in the conductor's ca' in rear of the approached the car and recognizing Col. Vishart, accosted him in a civil and friendly way. Stephen Lowrey inquired whether ed; Drs. Bahnson, Foote and Norcom. he had any arms, and went aboard the cab his shirt sleeves, and wore only one pistol fort of the numates, or build another elsein his belt; but Stephen carried in his where. was but one party at the close of the war. & Wesson and two Colt's. On entering the Legislature, ss from this District by the D that or none. He launched into a tirade when t'ol. Wishart drew aside the skirt of meet in Statesville on the 3d Tuesday in handsome teacher, whose authority no one more eloquently than even words could caliar stress in the Radical country of New could be caused by Judge The nomina- against the acts of the late Legislature; and his coat and displayed the handle of a re- May next. was made tunnimous and all parties endorsed Holden as a poor persecuted and peater, which he assured the outlaw was prescribed individual. His speech de- the only weapon he carried. Stephen at veloped innumerable inconsistencies, and, once made a grab at the pistol as if to The report of the House Select Commits sibly to the disappointment of the school years your senior. I am rich now, but government, her soldiers or her citizens; very about of the school years your senior. I am rich now, but government, her soldiers or her citizens; very about of the school years your senior. founded upon false bases, his argument snatch it from its place, but Col. Wishart tee on the charges against Secretary Robe- girls, no such outbreak had occurred. Marwas a web of sophistries calculated to tell foiled this attempt by dexterously leaping son was presented vesterday. The Repub-garet, perched in the library gallery at with the force of truth upon his hearers .- from the car to the piazza of the store lican majority report in their usual man- home, among her well-beloved books, had old to-day." Having exhausted himself and audience where the outlaw was standing, and con- ner, that the Secretary is a much maligned heard her step-mother's accusation, and (about half of whom had gradually dropped fronting Stephen who was standing in the man; that the administration of his depart- the teacher's laughing reply. Neither of low voice. "I see no gray hairs in your civil authority. away) he finally resigned in favor of Mars door of the car from which he had just estimated upon the govern-the speakers had been aware of her precipity that he has been active and faithful sence, and she did not make it manifest by mine. Fifty years old to day? You look

The mighty Radical Trojan then took. The outlaws now assured him that in his trust, and that the charges against word, or look, or sign. But when they the field. And here we pause to admire they meant him no harm and only wished him are a tissue of hes. The Democratic were gone she clenched her little white his veice. What his Squire boasted in a friendly conference, and at Andrew's reminority report is of a less partisan and hand, vowed passionately to herself that wind, this massive short-statue dignitary quest he walked with him behind the more manly kind. Both Mr. Blair and Mr. she would surprise them both, and mak He commenced with a vindication of his | comrade and Col. Wishart. As the train | precedent. In the Secor case ninety-three | Accordingly, when informed of the exthe General Assembly in the matter of turned to the car, and meeting Stephen on ment to private individuals on account of apposition much to the astonishment of take it now?" course in the matter of the non-apprehen- "When I send for you again you come. the most favorable light-there was grave own eyes when she saw Margaret obedision of the Lowrey outlaws; from this nat- I'll send a friend for you in a few days, and doubt whether it had not been already paid ently leave the house each morning with

Stevens, forgetting, in the excitement of its melancholy, tragic end is but too well done in violation of a wholesome rule of with a look of wondering inquiry that gray hairs begin to come to teach them. had in Judge Merrimon's absence was rectly, unarmed and alone to the spot whatever. Mr. Blair says that he The meeting adjourned with three cheers and cold-blooded murder does not stain the is but one step this side of corruption. her very ear.

> Condensed from the Newbern Journal of Commerce. North Carolina Medical Society.

Tumor under the arm pronouned incu-

Dr. Young reported a case of wound in Dr. Whitehead said that amputation in day evening, said :

the army proved abundantly successful. Dr. Hines said that he had charge of a tifty against the patient getting well by am- his banio, and the Americanputation twenty-five times out of fifty the To the American there's nothing so swert Dr. Bahnson said he ealled to see an old very freely. Indeed, upon removing the Dr. Hicks said he never knew but one fluence of chloroform. He said upon taking a patient from the the feet and raised them right up and they invariably returned to consciousness in a mixture of three parts of chloroform and one of ether by weight.

Europe up to the time he left there (1851) which form the food of many birds, thus choly smile. was in favor of chloroform. Dr. P. W. Young favored the use of

Dr. Hines offered the following resolu-

Resolved. That the Secretary be instruct-

On motion of Dr. Noreum the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the Society return their thanks to Mr. Wm. Whitford, of the New- with her?" bern Journal of Commerce, and Capt. E. C. Woodson, of the Raleigh News for their faithful and efficient report of our transac-

Dr. Duffy read papers on an obstetrical on Publication. Dr. Murphy offered a resolution returnand to our citizens for kindness shown the Society while with them.

the Society were returned to the different railroads for return tickets. Thanks were returned to the temporary chairman, Dr. Hines, and the Vice-Presi-

Dr. Babuson offered the following preamble and resolution: Wishart with the outlaws at Moss gard to the relative merits of Chloreform | me and we will see what can be done. I as she had seen him the very day of their ket, which he swallowed raw, without Neck, a few days before his assassination, and Ether as aniesthetics led to an animaby them. On Friday before his death Col. ted discussion here to-day and the importance of the fact renders it desira le to meeting.

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair from amongst the daughter and heiress of the late Judge more experienced members of our Society Gray, sitting quietly at a desk in the vil-Soon after the train halted the two out- to report at our next annual meeting, and lage academy among a group of guls, who laws, Andrew Strong and Stephen Lowrey that the subject be discussed first under eyed her over their school books as stealththe head of miscellaneous business.

The following Committee was appoint- imported kangaroo. into the war, declared that having been for to satisfy himself on that point, Andrew be appointed by the Chair to memorialize and her curling, brown hair, she was by the South, he was now completely subju- Strong remaining on the piazza of the store the Legislature in regard to enlarging the far the handsomest girl in the whole hand a Spencer rifle and in his belt five el- After some discussion the matter was re- heard many a tale of her haughty and ca-He adopted the conclusion that there egant pistols-two Deringers, one Smith ferred to the Committee to memorialize pricious temper, and were in daily and store, where they remained for some time Archer exonerate the Secretary from all her step mother appear to others so harsh in conversation, while Stephen remained charges of corruption, and confine them- censorious, and unjust woman she herself, on board the car, and seemed to take no selves to the real gist of the accusations- in her own secret heart, had always been interest in what was passing between his his gross and wanton violation of law, and willing to believe her.

wonder that Mr. Blair is able to say that ed to burn in the soft, white flesh. into a cause for fear and apprehension .- no more. tion of the Secretary. It is barnacled all ily changed for the better the people of this it to share the mansion of a merchant country are likely to be brought to shame prince.

The Higest Enjoyment. Hon. "Sunset" Cox, in his lecture on man is to hear the last cantatrice, the alone remained as ever, Margaret Gray. Spaniard enjoys the most skillful thrust of the malador in the bull arena, the Nea-

As to sit in his chair and tilt up his feet. Enjoy the Caba, whose flavor just suits, And gaze at the world through the toes of his cemented with coal tar or some other sub- lovers consoled themselves as speedily as man to die from the effects of the adminis- hesive. The mixture is then moulded into | friends. economy in consumption, as they burn gifts. Evid with a residue of only four or five per cent. the willow of ashes, and convenience of transporta- meaning of tion, as they can be placed very closely.

of that name were designed to subserve .- woman of thirty-five. Dr. Norcom mentioned several cases in A scientist who has given attentive observa which holding up the feet after giving tion to the matter say the rattle is actually abundant tresses before the glass, saw the beneficial to it, its object being to imitate first gray hair. counting for the apparent "fascination" of now," she exclaimed.

ed to publish with the proceedings of this "And so you really think there is nothing | convenient," said the girl. Society the names of and the date when ber of Caldwell's special friends, among they passed, of all the Doctors who have serious in Margaret's naughtiness, my dear passed the Medical Board since its organ- sir." said a fashionably dressed lady of five zation up to this date, and that the names and forty summers to a gentleman of fifof those who pass the Board annually be teen years her junior, who stood behind the she turned so pale that the girl was then published with the proceedings of the So- open library window, regarding her with frightened. an amused smile.

Gray," said the gentleman, quietly. "And what do you think I had better do "Send her to me if you like," was the negligent answer. The lady's anxions face cleared and brightened at once.

"Would you really take her?" "If it will give you pleasure I will be happy to do so." "Oh, it will be such a weight off my Engine Company, for the use of their Hall I have suffered from that girl's peculiar checked her. ways since I came into this house to live. Fond as I am of Judge Gray, I doubt if I is now a man of fifty. He has been away On motion of Dr. Hicks the thanks of ever could have made up my mind to take for twenty years. How can I hope or he Society were returned to the different him had I known as much of his only fancy that he has remembered me all this child as I know now. And, since her father's death, she has run wild-positively wild, Mr. Strong. I have not the dent, Dr. Norcom, for the dignified man- slightest control over her. In fact, she sets ner in which they presided over their every one at defiance, and what -----

In view of the fact that a question in re- easily understand it all. But send her to have had some wild natures in my time .-Good afternoon, madam." With these words a human destiny was > the next day saw Margaret, the only ily and curiously as if she had been a newly

Dr. Murphy moved that a Committee brunette complexion, her large, dark eyes, Secondly, because she was an beiress. Thirdly and lastly, because they had tiful as ever. How is that?" within those walls would ever dream of do.

the greater oppression of the people in his death. True to his word he prepared to take out the old engines and put in new, and most promising scholar in the school. capacity of Senator. The advantage he obey, and saddling his mule he rode di- without advertisement or any publicity. She ought, therefore, to have been harpy. But it was with a very sad face that two hours and a half Thursday more apparent than in the presence of that named by the messenger. What occurred __-does not know from what source the she went up into the familiar hall, at dusk, in apologising to the negroes gentleman in Pittsboro' and Fayetteville. there was witnessed by no human eye be- Secretary derives his power. If he could on the evening of the great examination kind; and consciousness of the fact that every act of his life, of which And finally Mars Tod, seeing his audience side those of the actors in the fearful trage- barter the engines and boilers of the Ten- lay, to collect her books, and take one last reduced to comparative thinness, it then | dy, but in the afternoon of the same day a | nessee for another set, might be not with look at a place which she would never again on the stem, while weeds of homeliness go being past midnight, wound up citizen of the nighborhood was herrified by equal reason have traded the ship itself for see tenanted as it had been tenanted of off readily, is no doubt in many cases at course, to conceal his odious share in the with gore, lying by the roadside. Two bids tract for the repair of the steamer Tennes- empty and desolate. The stately figure that transaction in almo t starving the inmates. eous, gaping wounds, one through the body, see applies fully to the contractors for the filled it like a throne was absent; and yet, Handsome women are apt to overvalue his friend had Ku-Kluxed him to-night, that when shot he was reclining on the been if competition had been invited." their beauty. She heard the deep, sweet and uncer moniously captured the best carth whittling the end of a small stick, The upshot of the whole matter is that tones of that beloved voice-beloved! She whole, Mr. Caldwell's speech was princi- that these treacherous and cowardly fiends ment has become shamefully loose. Laws "Oh, my dear master!" she said aloud, pall, remarkable for his failure to make a had concealed themselves in ambush near are openly disregarded; strange precedents and burying her head in her hands, she sat which he shirked the Civil Rights ques- had of their presence were the two shots been proved against the Secretary himself. A step crossed the hall, hastily, an arm tion, not one word having been uttered by that hurled his brave, unsuspecting soul it is very clearly proved that he has done was thrown around her waist; that voice, he was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was so anxious to avoid, though one of so har as the was him in regard to this important question. into eternity. A more cowardly, brutal his best to produce a state of affairs which all hurried and agitated, was speaking in annals of crime among the most barba- The history of the Navy Department, "My pupil! Oh, if I were younger or be triffed with—a lesson that thousands of denunciation of the acts of the late General of the l rous people that ever inhabited the earth. since the election of General Grant, fur- you older; if I were rich or you poorer, I pretty women do learn too late. And yet these men go unpunished-their nishes a striking evidence of his untitness would dare to say, 'my Margaret,' and do unavenged. Stephen Lowrey proudly dinates. A purely military department at ling, and I am fifteen years older than you. to accept the offer of the first good, sensi- and twenty-live minutes long. boasts that he committed the murder - least one would have thought General Remember me, when you remember me ble lover who falls in her way. But ladies raises a hand against him or attempts to that he labored under no constitutional or from you if I were your equal in these two It is a noteworthy fact that homely girls of the description. Arrest-Henry Berry Lowrey Cer. avenge the death of one who sacrificed his legal disability; and his second was Secre- things. Leaven bless you, dear. I dare generally get better husbands than fall to tary Robeson, who is generally understood not kiss your lips. You will keep them the lot of their beautiful sisters. Men who to have used the office as a political mill, for the man you love and marry one day are caught merely by a pretty face and and is now distinctly proved to have con- when I am far away. But your hand-" temptuously violated the laws passed for He raised it to his lips, and a hot tear The practical, useful, thoughtful portion of the government of the Department. No fell with the long lingering kiss, and seem mankind is wisely content with unpretend--"It is an acknowledged fact all over the Before she could speak or stop him, he country that the United States navy, once hunried from the room. The pleasant

the source of unmixed pride to the people, "snonner term" was over, and the handhas been of late years rapidly degenerating some, stately "master" was gone to return proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the

> And (wenty years passed by To Margaret they seemed to bring little of trial or change. She still dwelt in her old home, though stead was grand and good enough for ber, and all the jarring presence was removed. "American Humor," in Washington, Fri- So she dwelt there quietly, with a maiden aunt for chaperon and companion; and all "The highest enjoyment of a French- her school-mates were married, and she that she lived this single, solitary life. politan the taste of the maccaroni, the Ger- Many a lover had come to woo; for brown wounds when the chances were tifty to man his beer and metaphysics, the darkey curls, and soft, dark eyes, and rosy cheeks. They have the run of a small yard and not often go begging for a purchaser when must not omit the daily ration of pounded backed by such a fortune as Margaret pos. eyster shells. My hens cost me seven cents | stance which never occurred, to show how pairs excuse of the Covernor tor sessed. She had saitors by the score, un- a day. til it came publicly to be understood that Most of the railroads in continental she would rather see the suitors at a dis-Europe are using "briquettes" as fuel for that no one ventured to try his luck with > polygonal bricks and subjected to steam Margaret went cheerrally to each wedpressure, after which it is dried in a kiln. ding, wished the bridegroom joy, and gave case Grant be renominated The use of "briquettes" is said to secure to the brides some beautiful and valuable cotemporaries to she was 'm "wenring made up and the acy so determined me? all means. Very And the ways and years went on. And Our notion is that in any target as rewhat real purpose the rattles of the snake the school girl of fifteen was now the make no somination-to endorse the nom-

Dr. Hines said that all experience in the sound of the cicada, or other insects She stopped to look at it with a melanattrac'ing them within its power, and ac- "Ah, he would not say I was too young and the servant entered and brought her a "The gentleman is below, Miss Margaret, and would like to speak with you, if

A Cedar Rapids editor envies the census

Margaret looked at the card. "ELLISON STRONG." The room reeled round and round, and

"Sure, Miss Margaret, it is ill that ye are, "Nothing at all serious, my dear Mrs. | and I'll go down and send the gentleman awav." "No, no!" said Margaret, recovering her composure with an effort. "Help me to finish dressing, Kate; I must see him." Kate, with a woman's quickness, guessed something of the truth, and did her best to make her mistress look as pretty as With the old color in her cheek, and the old happy light in her soft, brown eyes, Margaret stole down the stairs. But at the ing thanks to the Newbern Steam Fire | mind, Mr. Strong. I cannot tell you what | parlor door a sudden thought startled and | country by Caldwell's friends that the two | the people will inter them in August next.

> fancy that he has remembered me all this time as I have thought of him?" A little sobered by this misgiving, she and then give Judge Meares only twenty well left the room in about five seconds at opened the door.

She looked for a man almost a stranger; a man bent and bowed with the cares of "Yes, my dear madame," said Mr. twenty years; a man whose brow was fur-Strong, bowing politely, as if he thought rowed, and whose statuesque beauty gene she had completed her sentence. "I can as if it had never been.

And she saw before her Ellison Strong, parting twenty years before. Stately and erect as ever, with a brilliant color on his cheek, and his blue eyes flashing with all the fire of early youth and not a trace of care or sorrow to mar the beauty which she remembered so well. He sprang to meet her, and took her by the hand, and looked down into her eyes with a searching, almost imperious glance.

"Margaret," said the deep, sweet voice, whose music was unchanged, "I have staid away from you a whole lifetime; and at last, the craving to see or hear of you grew too strong to be denied. I came here expecting to find you a happy wife, with your grove, who appeared fifty per cent, more and pending, it beggars the English children at your knee, and here you are. solitary and alone, though young and beau-blue eyes searching her drooping face so cut the campaign. Instead of speaking of intently. But a deep crit disputing, unless, indeed, it would be her. -I left you twenty years ago, my dar- rion that the routh had no reason during before a second fiddle. Caldwell but much to the wonder, and very pos- ling, because I was a poor man and tifteen the war to be ashamed of the word of her the condennance in t what about the years, Margaret? They and that they were led by as gallant a sol. the up availabless of his acts from have made me no younger, I am fifty vears dier and as pure a patriot as the world ever ports: while his meanslatencies between "But I am thirty-five," she said, in a > not an hour older than when we parted in He bent his face down upon hers.

"Margaret, you liked me then-can you love me now-will you be my wife?" For an answer she lifted her lips to his. "Twenty years ago you would not kiss me; you bade me keep that first kiss for the man I was to love and marry. I have course in refusing to execute the law of was about to move off Col. Wishart re- thousand dollars were paid by the Depart- isting arrangement, she uttered no word of kept it for you twenty years. Will you

He held her closely to his heart in si-Thirty-five and fifty years of age! Does really he proceeded to a tirade against the you come and meet us," and Col. Wishart in full. This was done by illegally taking her satchel of school books swinging from it seem absurd to you, young lady of six the money from the appropriation for the ber arm. Strong was also puzzled. His teen? Ah me! I sometimes wonder if old cry of Judge Merrimon's defending nobody knows or perhaps ever will know— succeeding administrations. In the case of el none. And so the days went on, and to get married," is not unfrequently resat glaring around him, and truly Swepson, and drawing bills as Swepson's bore to Colonel Wishart at Shoe Heel, the Tennessee the Secretary is proved to Margaret passed her first examination trihis eye, and in whose plain face he sees something better than beauty. Pretty girls who are vain of their charms are rather prone to make observations of this flowers of loveliness are often left to pine > the bottom of the question. The truth is, most men prefer homeli-Providence may throw in their way. The at it. This threw Hargrove into a flutter include winding rock ahead of our haughty Junes and co- and he lost no time in evading that which some The whole plate at the state of the wh

Miss Hannah Moore, a very excellent figure do not, as a rule, amount to much.

Great Laying

The following is a part of an evening's

Egg Harbor: Dr. A. M. Dickie, Doylestown, Pa .:of my hens. I have twenty-two-ten fullblooded white Leghorns and twelve balf Margaret felt no desire to share the Brahma and half Leghorn. They laid in splender of which the late widow was so January last 423 eggs; in February, 466; monts, 1,404, or 117 dozen. They have the run of a well-ventilated back shed for rough and stormy weather. Mr. Bruen's method of feeding and mine coincide, and It was not, however, for lack of offers of course I think he is right, especially in and Grecian features, and perfect lips do orchard. Those who want plents of eggs

Mr. Ely: These favored fewls ought to of their praiseworthy performance.

The Wilmington Join and of the 15th ittional Politics-Keep Cool." in which it takes ground against a thir one. Want could the they become ex-ination of Greeley would damage him with

On that day, Margaret, arranging her many republican voters. -Hillsborn', Re-"Babies taken and finished in ten minntes" is the announcement of a western

And just then a tap came at the door, for embracing 17,000,000 women.

CALDWELL AT WHITEVILLE

He Evades a Discussion .- Judge Meares Bepresenting Judge Merrimon -Caldwell and Hargrove for the Enforcement Act and Suspension of the Writ of Habeas Corpus - Caldwell Arms Negro Militia.

county, on Saturday last. Hon. O. P. | Col. Bingbar,'s papels well's speech, if he could possibly be forced he had examined the law to terms. The speaking was not to take he was allowed to furnish them. Their son and Judge Meares previously had an votes." And thus they go on and interview with the Governor in order to arrange for a joint dis ussion. Although "I am thirty-five years old to-day, and he citizens of Columbus, doughty Mars Tod Judge Marrimon, having been refused an to offer himself to the people, but simply worthy Knight. This shrinking from the to reply to Caldwell and expose his false fire of his adversary, like the burnt child of and demagogical representations. It was old, clearly proclaimed that understood by Conservative friends, however, that though not permitted to enter with any fair terms into the discussion. Judge Meares would address the people after the Caldwell meeting was over. The citizens then repaired to the Court House to hear Caldwell and wait as pathey had charged themselved for the cam-

The meeting was called to order by W. Stanley, one of the only seven white Radicals that Columbus contains. Accorsober than in Wilmington. He began with remarks materially tempored for the occasion, following the same outline of Just here at this declaration, so flagrantly inconsistent with his past acts, Judge Meares interrupted him, by permission, to giving for their past commented deposit ask of he and Goe. Caldwell had not both of HABEAS CORPES? no way to get out of it, he stated that Gov. Caldwell had instructed him to say that he of the megio Jim Harris, v bri.

of the Habeas Corpus. "Then," said Judge Meares, "that kills Care page were a law war all you have said about the supremacy of Ston of half a. "How did that homely woman contrive the civil power." All this time Caldwell had been por the

"His countenance was a civil war itself." sion; himself lured by the prospect of cruel authority with bayonets at his request, and longing for a return of the period

When murders sanctuary find, At the close of the uncomfortable inter-

"In error obstinate, in wranging lotal."

ment acts of Congress, and the further suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpore. But here we pause to make a doubt, Whether he were more wise, or ston Some hold the one, and some the other trutweighed his rage but balt a grain." upon the blate licket, and declared that it roosting and laying, and an open shed on remarkable fact that he was opposed to Grant's Ku-Khus consider in South Cardthe cooking or scalding of the morning's vote for Mars John. We could see no peal for the same thing here if a further stripes would have been inflicted. When progress in Wilmington, Sudge Means over the Governor of the State takes the stump | concluded his court with one of other places refuge of a sepundrel." His speech was ignomy of a halter.

The difference is so small, his brain

> i,on son outlaws, and his having me militia; and a rehearsal of his old defense tiary Board. Lyon Swepson he made the reduction of expenses; the abolishment of usual descent, charging him with all the public plunder, and the maintenance of the villainous swindles of railroad bonds, with- sacred writ of HABBAS CORPUS. out so much as alluding to his own particular friend, Littlefield, the swindler. He assailed Judge Merrimon for having simply en Swepsen's lawyer, when he (Caldwell) had himself so altered the bills drawn by Judge Merrimon for Swepson, as to give the very opportunity by which the

Reported Specially for the Journal.

ence of Judge Merranon against Cald. vell's false insinuations. Having spoken namely two hours, he was about to conclude bisrimarks, when Ja tge Mean's asked him if within the begoenth or two a negro military consect had had and armed by himself In reply Caldwell ack. Caldwell and Hargrove had an appoint- company had been armed ment to speak at Whiteville, Columbus General had lone so, in company had been tarnes

Meares went up from Wilmington to rep- ished, and at that time to the bear of resent Judge Merrimon and reply to Cald- applications, and the Adjute and the applications place until 12 o'clock, and Sheriff Richard- sai Judge Meanes, "this will cost you 5,000

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One Square, two weeks...... 180

One Square, three month ..... 7 66

One Square, six months,..... 12 09

A Square is equal to TEN SOLID LINES of ad-

Cash, nvariably in advance.

nounced Gen. Clingham for his manife de-

Additional Squares at proportional rates.

it had previously been posted round the of that political funeral shroud in which candidates for Governor would address the Hon. O. P. Meares, the representative of was unwilling to accept any fair propo- equitable arrangement as to division of sition. He offered to let Judge Meanes time, had given his friends to understand make an opening speech, to which Cald- that he would address them as soon as the well would reply for an hour and a half, Radical harrangues were finished. Caldminues for rejoinder, and Caldwell ter he had concluded his remarks, precipiwould close the discussion. Such terms tately retired, while his Squire, Taz, rewere too ridiculous to be accepted, as mained about five minutes longer with a Judge Meares was not there as a candidate | bold show of covering the retreat of his

> "This sturdy Souice had, as well As this told Trojan kight, cen hell."

of Caldwell's cowardice, in shirking a discussion, and proceeded to show up the many inconsistencies of the Unbernatorial tiently as possible until be and Hargrove occupant. Instead of discussing one single should have expended the gas with which | principle he had for over half an hour detained the audience talking of chintzes and bed bugs in the brenet of penitentiary conding to programme, be first introduced Har- the speaker, when such grave questions She could not answer with those deep political historythat he has recited through- the same infortance to the destruction of the main and liberties of the declare his desire for the sequenacy of striketaly uplayed. He spoke of the deafter mayon, pently med on honoral to part in the war, stood before the Radicals apoleadvocated the measure in Congress pro- He confessed his unusement, however, at ciding for a further extension of the writting ballerously analypoints records of Har-Thus brought suddenly to a stand, the ad- mans-Hargrove destaring his post near in venturous Squire Taz confessed that he the right-consuless of secession ; and the had advocated that measure, and Union man Caldwell deponded gir with further represented himself us still in all the are of his bitle grounds. As to Calife faror of it. He did not, however, un- well's excuses for the holars to modulate dertake to answer for Governor Cald- | colored us a apon the State ticket to close well. After some little skirmishing and they had themselves so requested, Junger side whispers between himself and his Mars Meares denied the assertion, and place the Tod, both being brought to bay and seeing stances of their harms there are no way to get out of it, he stated that Gor. megan an ilat company of the stall He appeared to us reveiling in the recollection of his friend, Gov. Holden's oppression; himself larged by the prestage of gray. frience Swepson Daniel St. - . . . . Lasper;

"When civil power shall snore at ease.
While soldiers fire to keep the peace; was proven by the jet open control in the inruption, Hargrove branched forth in a ti- chain Legislature was for a house the large ness and amiability to heauty and caprice. Handsome women are apt to overvalue fence of the atrocious Shoffner bill, the intransaction in anio t starving the innates. He did not, however, fail to show his appreciation of the manner in which Harbor have associated the did not, however, fail to show his appreciation of the manner in which Harbor have head been murdered. The mule on which he rode stood fastened to manner. The prices paid are, no doubt, the deep blue eyes, and the starving the innates. He did not, however, fail to show his appreciation of the manner in which Harbor have been murdered. The mule on which he rode stood fastened to manner. The prices paid are, no doubt, the deep blue eyes, and the contrary, aware at his own temerity, he grew bold enough the following the innates. He did not, however, fail to show his appreciation of the atrocious Shoffner bill, the interview of the atrocious Shoffner bill, the interview of the other through the head, showed how the interview of the other through the bead solutions and operations of which he represented with palpable falsehood. Warning at his own temerity, he grew bold enough he prefaced his remarks by saying a limb near by, and appearances showed somewhat higher than they would have cled lips, that closed so firmly in spite of the personal deficiencies, generally lay to remark that Judge Meares was not in the plant since it is the pla themselves out to produce an agreeable impression, and in most instances succeed.

They don't aspire to capture paragons with that if he (Hargrove) was ready for a disprincely fortunes, but are willing to take cussion, suppose they walk out into the considere in the analysis and are willing to take cussion, suppose they walk out into the considere in the analysis and are willing to take cussion, suppose they walk out into the considere in the analysis and are willing to take cussion, suppose they walk out into the considere in the considered in the co anything respectable and loveworthy that grove in the Court House square, and go cal countril, and a second state of the court House square, and go cal countril, and a second state of the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go cal countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the court House square, and go call countril, and the countril c > ject and reject, until nobody cares to woo his own friends called upon him to accept, and especially then them. Men don't like to be subdued or to Poor Hargrove then branched forth in a of the land to be reduced to the land to Assembly, and contented himself by con-cluding in the interest of the Presidential rules while the system of the stery in score of murders, of which this is the latest for a position of which one of the first my best to turn this girlish liking into a and pious person, who knew whereof she campaign, eulogizing Grant and denounce some the first my best to turn this girlish liking into a and in many respects the most startling, go requisites is skill in the selection of suborunavenged. Stephen Lowrey proudly dinates. A purely military department at ling, and I am fifteen years older than you. to accept the offer of the first good, sensiand twenty-five minutes long. Gov. Caldwell then addressed the crowd. State the speaker proceed d with his comthat he killed Col. Wishart—he does this Grant capable of organizing. Yet his first in after days, and say to yourself that these whose mirror, aided by the glamonr of He lost no time in proceeding with his parisons to Nacional alians, and embidined Hauled Away on a Wagon Present publicly and in the presence of the friends selection for the position of Secretary was were the barriers that rose between us. whose mirror, and of the publicly and in the presence of the friends selection for the position of Secretary was were the barriers that rose between us. Whose mirror, and of the countries and all the countries and the countries are considered and the countries and the countries are considered and the countries of the murdered man, and yet no one Mr. Borie, whose sole qualification was, My darling, nothing else should keep me for conquest, pay no beed to such advice. work of the day—a living impersonation every department of government, and contrashed the present chormons expenditures of the government with the comparatively Being aroused to the point, he made his minestration, exhabiting how slowly the formal declaration in favor of the Enforce- debt was being extinguished with the enormous revenue from hijerious and eppressive taxation. The dignification of Hobbin by Grant was held as significant in its encourage. Possessed with the insanc idea of easy and hangman, flance, had also been ex-American Ingitute. The hens that did representation and demagogical triumple, alicel to position, and fattened with reward this laying thust be citizens of the Great be made excuses for not putting pegroes by the Radical administration; and the was at the request of the colored men voters. Curt. Brooken, the Budfed candithemselves that this was done, when he date for Lieut. Governor, had openly de-Chairman Ely's request for more ponitry knew of the fact that several colored men claud that he intended to intimidate voters over, and if its administration is not speed her lashionable mother had long since left items encourages me to tell of the doings wished to be nominated, and worked for in Sanquan. And Hargrove had said to the nomination. His reason for favoring the negrous in Winnington that in this the further suspension of the Hobeas Cor- State there were ten white men who could a week pus he declared to be because the colored be intimidated to one negro. And here man could not get his rights adjudicated the odious Shohoer hill came in for its inordinately proud. The dear old home- in March, 488; whole number in three and enforced in the courts of the State. share of tradical description, and the re-Addressing himself here exclusively to the state of the war it had mangurated uponcolored population present, he stated the the white men of the State exhibited. the sunny side to feed and stay in during their voting while slaves. To illustrate line was depicted in the light of the opthis, he supposed the insupposable instance pression which has trodden down that of dayes being allowed to vote, and the base. And the speaker declared that measures of the owners to control this the Radicals of North Carolina would appear to feed, which should be given to them warm, point or force in this silly recitation, except suspension of the Halor Corpus was that it was a shrewd demagogical trick to granted. And this, he said, was Galdand to arouse the pussions of the negliges, against this ruspension. After showing up the their form rowners, by supposing an io. this ruspension. After showing up the patter excuse of the Covernor for arming his only seeming. Truly, as Dr. John- have happened to be present, must be veresent. stance that is at once combustible and co- possible by marrying the prettiest of her stant has a capital editorial headed "Na- sour describes in, "patriotism is the last sought for escape even through the lesser even throu but a reliash of that he has made through- This day's proceedings was the opening as a coout the campaign; defense of his usurpa- of the campaign in Columbus. Effective times in the matter of the Convention ervice will be done there during the cates is a seases for not capturing the lass, and Columbus is determined to add . . . . - Her fame as the banner Conservative anty by an increased vote for the candi-

> To obtain seed peas that have not bugs in them, sow peas for raising seed rather late-say in the top part of June, which cibb, indeed, and tractices such a trick to. Under his withering denunctation, any in regard to the State institutions, and dates of peace and reform, the subordination vision particularly with reference to the Peniten- of the military to the civil authority; the will be too late for the buys.

Always "hard pressed"-Bricks.